How can East Sussex Floating Support Service help me?

ARE YOU AGED 60 OR OVER AND ARE EITHER:

Living in a property that is not suitable?

Are at risk of losing your home?

Have rent or mortgage arrears or other debt?

Are homeless or in temporary accommodation?

We can support you with advice and information over the phone or by visiting you at home.

Our service is built around your personal needs and supports your wellbeing.

East Sussex Floating Support Service is a free, confidential, short-term service funded by East Sussex County Council.

We work in partnership with the NHS, District and Borough Councils, Fire and Rescue Service, the Police and the local community and voluntary sector.

WE CAN SUPPORT YOU WITH:

- ✓ Accessing benefit advice and debt management.
- ✓ Managing long term physical health conditions.
- ✓ Obtaining daily living equipment.
- ✓ Looking into more suitable accommodation.
- ✓ Finding community transport.
- ✓ Keeping warm and reducing energy bills.
- ✓ Dealing with tenancy or mortgage worries.
- ✓ Taking part in healthy living activities.
- ✓ Ensuring your home is safe.
- ✓ Accessing social groups or activities in your area.
- ✓ Accessing advice and support for your carer.
- ✓ Approaching other organisations.
- ✓ Getting online.
